

Decide whether to use the infinitive with or without to.

- I want you.
- You must up.
- They learn .
- I can along some packages of crisps.
- Do you English?

Fill in the correct form of the verbs (infinitive with/without to).

- I will (go) now.
- You should (do) your homework.
- She has (write) a letter.
- Amelie may (come) to our party.
- I'd like (watch) the film.

Exercises: with or without TO?

You should a coat.

I would like a pet.

You must your room

People work money.

It's going soon.

May I the window?

Paul will in Egypt.

They need that.

Shall we home?

We have by bus.