Making comparisons

- 1 This email is from Krishna, who has gone to live abroad. Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative form of the adjective or adverb in brackets.

Hi Neha,

Well, I've been here for a month now and things are fine. Of course, everything here is different from what I'm used to, and I'm finding some things (1) easier (easy) to deal with than others.

The course is (2) more demanding (demanding) than I expected and I'm having to work (3) harder (hard) than I ever have before. (4) The most difficult (difficult) aspect of the course is the amount of work we have to do. Last week I had to write five essays – that's (5) a tiring (tiring) thing I've ever done! The best aspect of the course is the other students. They're (6) friendlier (friendly) people I've ever met and because of them I'm (7) more stressed (stressed) now than I was the first week of the course.

Lots of things have changed for me in comparison with my life at home. I have to travel (8) farther (far) to college, a lot of things are (9) more expensive (expensive) and the weather is a lot (10) worse (bad)! The city is (11) bigger (big) than anywhere I've lived before and life is (12) faster (fast) here. I've never been (13) busier (busy) than I am now but this is (14) the most exciting (exciting) thing I've ever done and I'm really pleased that I'm here!

I'll write to you (15) more regularly (regular) in future.

Love,
Krishna
