PART 3

Listen and look. There is one example. Claire is asking Mr. Brown about his family. What work do the people in Mr. Brown's family do?

- Girl: Hi, Mr. Brown. How is everyone in your family?
- Man: We are very well, thank you, Claire. And you?
- Girl: I'm fine. In school, we talked about work today. What kind of work do people in your family do?
- Man: Well, there's my uncle. He lives in the city and works in a big hospital there.
- Girl: Is he a doctor?
- Man: Yes, he is. He loves his work.

Can you see the letter D? Now you listen and write a letter in each box.

- Girl: And what about your cousin?
- Man: He enjoys his work too.
- Girl: What does he do?
- Man: He works with animals and grows vegetables. He's a farmer.
- Girl: Do you help him?
- Man: Yes, there's always a lot to do when I go and see him.
- Girl: I know your daughter. She's really clever. Where does she work?
- Man: In a place where they make films.
- Girl: Really? That's cool. What does she do? Is she a film star?
- Man: (Laughs) No, she's a cook. But she sees lots of famous people when they want to have their lunch.
- Man: And there's my aunt.
- Girl: Does she like her work?
- Man: Yes, but it's very busy sometimes. She's got a flower shop, and she works in there.
- Girl: Is it near her house?
- Man: No, it's in a different village.
- Girl: What about your brother? Is he younger than you?
- Man: Yes, he is, and he's very good at singing.
- Girl: Really?
- Man: Yes. He's a bus driver now, but he'd like to be a pop star. He sings to the people on his bus, and sometimes they clap.
- Girl: Wow, that's brilliant!

- Man: What work would you like to do, Claire?
- Girl: I don't know. A dentist?
- Man: My sister is one of those!
- Girl: Why did she choose that kind of work?
- Man: She likes helping people.

PART 4

Look at the pictures. Listen and look. There is one example. Which is Julia's favorite day of the week?

- Boy: Hello, Julia. It's a great day. You're very happy today, Dan. Yes, I love Tuesdays. I play tennis.
- Girl: I don't like that day.
- Boy: Well, which day is your favorite? Monday?
- Girl: No, I like Sundays the most.

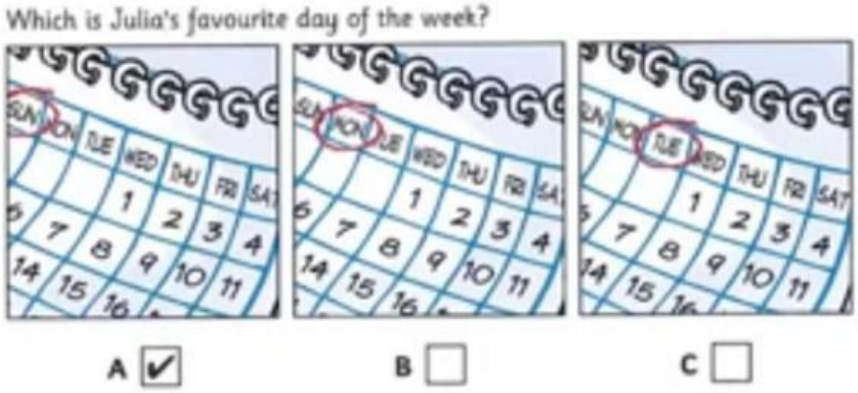
Can you see the tick? Now you listen and tick the box.



1. Where are Daisy's black shoes?

- Girl: Mom, where are my black shoes? I need them for my dance class today.
- Woman: I don't know. Did you look in your cupboard?
- Girl: Yes, I did. But they're not there. And they're not in the kitchen.
- Woman: Hmm... Look! There they are, on the stairs.
- Girl: Oh, thanks!

2. What was the weather like in the mountains?

- Man: How was your weekend trip to the mountains?
- Girl: Brilliant! We went fishing and went on long walks.
- Man: So was it sunny?
- Girl: It was cloudy, but we were fine because it didn't rain.
- Man: Great!

3. What's the matter with Sally?

- Man: What's the matter, Sally? Have you got an earache?
- Girl: No, but I have got a cough.
- Man: Would you like a hot lemon drink?
- Girl: Yes, please, Dad. But don't worry, I haven't got a temperature.
- Man: That's good.

4. Why is Vicky tired?

- Woman: You look tired today, Vicky. Did the birds wake you up again this morning?
- Girl: No, my room was quiet. And it's not because I played a lot of hockey.
- Woman: You played three games yesterday.
- Girl: Yes, I know. But I bought a new comic book, and I read it in bed. It was really good and... I couldn't stop.
