When he finally arrived at the town, he went straight to his hotel to check in and drop off his heavy bags. Now, Win was ready to explore the new place! He wanted to visit a famous museum, so he opened a map on his phone to navigate through the narrow streets. Along the way, he saw a beautiful vintage building and stopped to snap a quick photo. However, because he wasn't looking at the road, Win realized he got lost! He walked around until he found a small café. He bought a cold drink to cool down and paid the cashier. Luckily, the kind cashier told him how to get back to the hotel. It was a tiring but exciting day!
