

301. He was cruelly treated by his brothers, who sold him into slavery.
A. gently B. cleverly
C. reasonably D. brutally
302. There is often no discernible difference between rival brands.
A. clear B. obvious C. thin D. insignificant
303. I don't think that such an environment is conducive to your working.
A. beneficial B. harmful C. general D. particular
304. He was an accomplished linguist, fluent in French and German.
A. educated B. unskilled C. qualified D. respected
305. She was gazing at him with a soft, contented smile on her face.
A. interested B. dissatisfied C. excited D. pleased
306. His car turned over and caught on fire and yet, incredibly, he escaped unscathed.
A. believably B. considerably C. famously D. sufficiently
307. A bond of friendship has been created between two students after the sudden accident.
A. chain B. connection C. separation D. collection
308. The landscape was barren, with not a tree or shrub in sight.
A. poor B. fruitful C. arid D. desert
309. Heavy rains battered the central part of the country, making many people homeless.
A. addressed B. approached C. damaged D. protected
310. Some online communities have been set up with a view to preserving traditional values.
A. protecting B. violating C. harmonising D. joining
311. Any hesitation on the part of the government will be seen as weakness.
A. awareness B. uncertainty
C. reluctance D. willingness