

7.5 Quantifiers

1 Choose the correct options.

- 0 There's too much / too many salt on these potato chips – they taste terrible!
- 1 You need some / any special flour to make pizza.
- 2 They've got very little / very few T-shirts I like in this shop.
- 3 How much / many days a week do you work?
- 4 There are still a little / a few chocolates left in the box.
- 5 I don't want a lot / any milk in my tea, thanks.
- 6 I can only speak a little / a few French.
- 7 There are too many / too much visitors at the gallery today – I'd prefer not to go in.
- 8 Dad bought lots / many of apples, so we'll have them for dessert.

2 Complete the sentences with the words or phrases in the box. There are two extra options.

a few	a little	any	how much	lot	lots
too many	too much	very few	very little

- 0 My mom says she sometimes buys too much food at the supermarket, and we can't eat it all.
- 1 We don't have _____ eggs in the fridge. We've eaten them all!
- 2 Our teacher asked us _____ water we drink every day.
- 3 I only know _____ words in Spanish. I can buy a drink, but I can't have a conversation.
- 4 There were _____ people waiting outside the theater for tickets, so we couldn't see the movie.
- 5 There is a _____ of fruit in the fridge, if you're hungry.
- 6 _____ students are enjoying the book we're reading in English at the moment. It's not very popular!
- 7 I always have _____ salt on my food. I know it's not healthy, but food doesn't taste good without it!