II. READING COMPREHENSION

Read the passage and choose the best answer. (5 questions – 5 points)

A Good Learning Routine

Emma is a Grade 5 student. She has a busy day, but she tries to manage her time wisely. Every morning, she wakes up at six o'clock and gets ready for school. She usually reviews five new English words before breakfast.

After school, Emma takes a short break before doing her homework. She often reads English stories because they help her learn words in context. She does not always understand every word, but she tries to guess the meaning from the sentences around it.

This week, Emma is preparing for her first mini test. At the moment, she is checking her old mistakes and making a short study plan. She is not playing games much this week because she wants to stay focused. Although Emma sometimes feels nervous before tests, she does not give up.
