

09/ Families and friends

Words you need...

- ▶ a relation/relative someone who is in your family, including people such as aunts, uncles, grandparents, etc.
- ▶ your uncle the brother of your mother or father, or the husband of your aunt
- ▶ your aunt the sister of your mother or father, or the wife of your uncle
- ▶ your cousin the child of your aunt or uncle
- ▶ your nephew the son of your sister or brother
- ▶ your niece the daughter of your sister or brother

- ▶ a grandparent a parent of your parent
- ▶ a grandfather the father of your mother or father
- ▶ a grandmother the mother of your mother or father
- ▶ a grandson the son of your child
- ▶ a granddaughter the daughter of your child
- ▶ to get married If two people get married, they become husband and wife.
- ▶ married having a husband or wife
- ▶ a wedding an occasion when people come together to see two people get married

Grandparents

People often use the word grandma or gran instead of 'grandmother' and the words granddad or grandpa instead of 'grandfather'. These words sound less formal. Children use them especially when talking to their grandparents:

- ▶ How old are you, Grandpa?

Exercise 1

Use the information in the picture above to complete the sentences.

- 1 Rosa is Jane's granddaughter.
- 2 Jane is Lewis's _____.
- 3 Marcus is Lewis's _____.
- 4 Daisy is Elizabeth's _____.
- 5 Lewis is Tom's _____.
- 6 Elizabeth is Daisy's _____.
- 7 Lewis is Colin's _____.
- 8 Colin is Rosa's _____.

Exercise 2

Listen to and read what Kristen says about her family. Are the following sentences (1–6) true (T) or false (F)?

I have a small family. My mother only has one sister. My father had a brother but he died when he was young. It was very sad – he got married when he was 25 and died two years later. He didn't have any children. So I only have one aunt and my uncle who is married to my aunt. My aunt and uncle have three children – two boys and a girl. The oldest of my cousins is married. She had a big wedding last year, which was a lot of fun.

My mother's parents are both dead but my father's father is alive and he lives near us.

- 1 Kristen has a lot of relatives. F
- 2 Two of Kristen's grandparents are alive.
- 3 Kristen has one grandfather who is still alive.
- 4 Kristen has three cousins.
- 5 Kristen saw one of her cousins get married.
- 6 Kristen's uncle who died had a wife.

