Supervisor: Good morning! You must be Carlos. Welcome to the crew/ foundation.

Carlos: Good morning! Yes, that's me. Thank you.

Supervisor: Before we start, have you worked on a _____ site before?

Carlos: Yes, I have some experience, but this is my first job here.

Supervisor: No problem. First things first: _____ is mandatory at all times _____.

Carlos: Okay. What do I need?

Supervisor: Hard hat, _____, gloves, and _____. Do you have them?

Carlos: I have a _____ and _____, but I still need the boots and safety glasses.

Supervisor: That's okay. We have some extra safety glasses in the trailer. For the boots, talk to the foreman before your shift starts.

Carlos: Perfect, thank you.

Supervisor: Your _____ today is from seven to three thirty. The crew starts early, so make sure you're on site by seven.

Carlos: Got it. I'll be here on time.

Supervisor: Good. Today, we're working near the _____. Let me show you the _____ so you understand the plan.

Carlos: Okay, I see. Are we working on this section here?

Supervisor: Exactly. We need to finish this section before the _____ on Friday.

Carlos: Alright. What do you need me to do first?

Supervisor: For now, help the crew _____ and _____ materials near the truck.

Carlos: Sure, no problem.

Supervisor: Be careful when you _____ and _____ heavy materials. Use your legs, not your back.

Carlos: Got it. Safety first.

Supervisor: Exactly. Also, _____ for the _____ near the east wall. The ground is uneven there.

Carlos: Thanks for the warning. I'll be careful.

Supervisor: Good. Later, we'll _____ the _____ and mark where we need to cut.

Carlos: Sounds good. Do you want me to bring the _____?

Supervisor: Not yet. First, bring the _____ and the tool belt from the trailer.

Carlos: Okay. Hammer and tool belt.

Supervisor: Perfect. And remember, if you don't understand something, ask me or the _____.

Carlos: Okay, thank you. I appreciate it.

Supervisor: No problem. Let's get started.
