Exercise 2 15.2

Listen to and read these two descriptions of places. Are the following sentences (1–6) true (T) or false (F)?

If you enjoy sightseeing, then Venice is the place for you! Come and see our beautiful canals and historic buildings, which you can see from the water or the land. No trip would be complete without a visit to St Mark's Basilica, the city's cathedral. If you prefer a lively time, our carnival lasts for two weeks each year – come and have fun with us!

Come to Buenos Aires, the city of football and dancing! Stay in a hotel, apartment, or even a castle. Explore our city and try the delicious local food, especially our famous meat! If you want to get away, go on an excursion around the beautiful islands nearby, where you can relax on the beach.

1 Venice has mostly modern buildings. F
2 Venice does not have a cathedral. ____
3 The carnival in Venice happens every year. ____
4 In Buenos Aires, you can stay in a castle. ____
5 Many people say the meat in Argentina is good. ____
