

649. I quickly understood the dangers _____ rock climbing.

- A. up B. with C. of D. into

650. A group of activists are calling _____ the end of racism and injustice in the city.

- A. on B. into C. for D. over

651. She refused to disclose any details _____ the plan.

- A. over B. of C. up D. in

652. He brought disgrace _____ the whole team by falsifying the results.

- A. from B. to C. with D. on

653. We tried to disguise the fact that it was just a school hall by putting _____ coloured lights and balloons.

- A. up B. with C. of D. into

654. The building has fallen _____ disrepair over the years.

- A. on B. into C. for D. over

655. You should see _____ getting your hair cut.

- A. over B. about C. up D. in

656. My parents saw me _____ at the airport.

- A. from B. to C. with D. off

657. One way in which people are responding to such pressures is by setting _____ on their own, often by selling their services to their former employers.

- A. up B. with C. of D. into

658. Cabin crew, please stand _____ for take-off.

- A. in B. over
C. about D. by

659. We'll have to leave _____ the crack of dawn because we are short on time.

- A. from B. to
C. with D. at

