

285. You should ask David; he's a dab hand at designing.

- A. lazy B. good C. studious D. bad

286. My friend, Lucy, had to live from hand to mouth since she was made redundant last week.

- A. catch a disease
B. live with lots of money
C. live with little money
D. recover from a disease

287. After seeing the catastrophic impacts caused by the recent flood at first hand, the tourist decided to donate $2000 to help those in these areas.

- A. perfectly B. unevenly C. directly D. indirectly

288. It turns out that he's been hand in glove with a colleague for years, trying to steal as much money as possible from the bank.

- A. dissociating himself from
B. working closely with
C. friendly to
D. sending a glove to

289. I haven't prepared much for tomorrow's interview. Just the thought of sitting in a room full of interviewers made my hair stand on end.

- A. appalled me B. cooled me
C. comforted me D. horrified me

290. I wondered why Jimmy could put up with Peter. He really got in my hair when asking me lots of stupid questions all through lunch.

- A. scared me B. soothed me
C. annoyed me D. bothered me

291. Your bedroom should be repainted. Patches of mildew on the walls stick out like a sore thumb.

- A. are noticeable B. remain obvious
C. are invisible D. become important