

159. Blue-collar workers have taken to the main streets to revolve against the introduction of higher taxes.

- A. Blue-collar B. revolve C. introduction D. higher taxes

160. When the pandemic continued to wreak havoc on the tourism industry, the firm had no choice but to cut their workforce to a reducible level.

- A. wreak havoc B. choice
C. workforce D. a reducible level

161. The footballer was reverted as a national hero after he had scored the deciding goal of the match.

- A. reverted B. hero C. scored D. deciding

162. There has been a rush of car collisions over the past month when people return to work after 3 months of social distancing.

- A. rush B. collisions
C. return D. social distancing

163. The rate of bacterial infection has been stationery in recent weeks, causing valid concern among health experts.

- A. bacterial infection B. stationery
C. causing D. valid

164. Young adults, especially female students, are particularly sensible about their appearance.

- A. especially B. sensible C. particularly D. appearance

165. Police officers did an exhaustive search of the crime sensation, but they couldn't find the murder's fingerprints.

- A. exhaustive B. crime sensation
C. find D. fingerprints

166. They were absolutely astonished at his disgraceful conduct at the memory service.

- A. absolutely B. disgraceful
C. conduct D. memory service