THE LOST WALLET

Last Saturday, Faris went to the town library with his sister, Hana. They wanted to borrow some storybooks for the school holidays. After choosing a few books, they sat at a table and read quietly.

When it was time to go home, Faris noticed a wallet on the floor near the bookshelf. He picked it up and looked around, but nobody seemed to be looking for it. Faris took the wallet to the librarian, Mrs Lee.

Mrs Lee checked the wallet and found an identity card inside. She contacted the owner and asked him to come to the library. An hour later, a man arrived and thanked Faris for his honesty. Faris felt happy because he had helped someone.
