

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

I. Write the following words in the correct order.

Smallest → Largest

II. Use the words from the table to label the parts of the solar system.

Mars	Earth	Neptune	Saturn	outer space	The Milky Way
Jupiter	Uranus	The Sun	Venus	Mercury

III. Answer the questions.

1. What is the name of the largest planet?

2. Which is bigger, Universe or Galaxy?

3. How many major planets are there in our Solar System?

4. If you could travel anywhere in space, where would you go and why?

5. Why is learning about space important for us?

IV. Fill in the blank with the name of a planet.

- _____ is the closest planet to the Sun and the smallest planet in our Solar System. It is rocky and has no moons.
- _____ is the second planet from the Sun. It is the hottest planet because of its thick, cloudy atmosphere.
- _____ is our home. It is the only planet known to have life, with air, water and land.
- _____ is called the Red Planet because of its reddish color. It has two small moons: Phobos and Deimos.
- _____ is the largest planet in our Solar System. It is a gas giant and has more than 90 moons!
- _____ is famous for its beautiful rings. It is a gas giant and has over 140 moons.
- _____ is an icy giant that spins on its side! It has a faint ring system and 27 known moons.
- _____ is the farthest planet from the Sun. It is very cold and has strong winds and 14 known moons.

V. Answer the questions using some suggested structures below.

1. Describe what you can usually see in the night sky where you live.

Useful Language:

- From my balcony/window, I can usually see...
- Due to light pollution in my city, it is difficult to...

2. If you were an astronaut, which planet or moon would you like to visit first? Give at least two reasons.

Useful Language:

- If I were an astronaut, I would travel to... because...
- One reason is that...
- Another reason is...