

Listening Comprehension Test: Technology Pros and Cons Level: B2 (Upper-Intermediate)

Nickname: _____ Class: _____ No. _____

1. Why do the speakers consider communication one of technology's greatest advantages?

- A. It helps people stay informed
- B. It keeps families connected.
- C. It makes learning more flexible
- D. We can call anyone

2. Which benefit of technology is highlighted in the discussion about education?

- A. It supports flexible learning
- B. It provides global news
- C. Video tutorials online
- D. Learning through apps

3. Which example best illustrates how technology has improved healthcare?

- A. Robots perform surgeries
- B. Medicine is becoming cheaper
- C. Doctors diagnose diseases faster
- D. Hospitals are no longer needed

4. Which example is used to explain how technology has changed transportation?

- A. Electric cars are becoming real.
- B. Self-driving cars are becoming real.
- C. We don't need to ask for directions anymore.
- D. Traveling has become so easy now.

5. Which problem is directly associated with excessive use of technology?

- A. Slower communication
- B. Less online learning
- C. Health and relationship issues
- D. Limited entertainment choices

6. Which concern is connected to the example of seeing an advertisement after a conversation?

- A. Screen addiction
- B. Job replacement
- C. Mental health
- D. Personal privacy

7. Why do the speakers encourage people to develop new skills?

- A. To improve online learning
- B. To keep up with workplace changes
- C. To communicate more effectively
- D. To enjoy digital entertainment

8. Which issue is presented as technology's impact on the environment?

- A. Electronic waste
- B. Mental health
- C. Job replacement
- D. Data privacy

9. What do the speakers mean when they describe technology as "a double-edged sword"?

- A. It creates more jobs than before
- B. It offers comfort but also creates problems
- C. It improves every part of life
- D. It changes faster than people expect

10. According to the speakers, what is the best way to benefit from technology?

- A. Learn through online courses
- B. Use social media regularly
- C. Use technology with balance
- D. Spend less time traveling