Our Heroes

Sarah: Amy Johnson is my hero. She was the first woman to fly from the UK to Australia alone and was famous in many countries. I can fly a plane, too. I would like to be a famous pilot like she was.

Tomoko: I think my hero is Yves Saint-Laurent. He was a famous fashion designer. I love his clothes. He was also from a big family and had two sisters, like me.

Maria: My hero is my mother. She was a nurse and was very kind to a lot of people. She doesn't work now. Now, she lives by the sea with my dad. I want to be like her. I'm at university and I want to be a doctor!

Carlos: Patricia Quintana is my hero. She was a chef and was very famous in Mexico. I'm a chef, too, and I cook the same kind of food as Patricia – traditional Mexican food.

Adil: I think my hero is a local man, Malik Hakim. He was a great footballer. He is from my town and was in a team in Germany. I love football, too. I play three times a week, but I'm not very good!

4 Read the text again. Are the statements True (T) or False (F)?

- 1 Sarah wants to learn to fly a plane. _____
- 2 Tomoko is a fashion designer. _____
- 3 Maria's mother is not a nurse now. _____
