Pedro: Roberto! It's so good to see you. How have you been?

Roberto: Really good! It's been a busy year, but I've been learning so much.

Pedro: Tell me everything. I know you started as a caregiver. How was that?

Roberto: It was really rewarding / exhausting. I've been thinking about that job a lot lately. Working with people with special needs taught me so much about patience.

Pedro: And now you're in a kitchen, right? How has that been going?

Roberto: Yes! I've been working at a hotel kitchen since September. It's very different, but I love it.

Pedro: Have you been _____ with the language at work?

Roberto: At the beginning, yes. But my _____ have been helping me a lot. And I've been _____ so much English just by talking to them every day.

Pedro: That's amazing. And the hours? I heard kitchen work is tough.

Roberto: The _____ are long, and I've been doing some _____. But my _____ has been giving me really good _____, so it feels worth it.

Pedro: Have you been saving money?

Roberto: I have been saving part of every _____. It's not a lot — I've been earning _____ — but it adds up.

Pedro: You seem so confident. Were you always like this?

Roberto: No! I've been trying to _____ since I arrived. It takes time. But honestly, every week, I feel like I'm _____ better.

Pedro: You're inspiring me. I've been thinking about making the move for months.

Roberto: Do it! The first step is the hardest. And you've already been taking it — you've been learning English!
