The Big Kitchen Party!

The Big Shopping Trip

Every Saturday, my family goes to the supermarket. We buy food for the whole week. When we arrive home, we unpack everything. There are a lot of red apples for our snacks and some green peas for the soup. There are few potatoes, maybe five or six, and some large oranges to make juice. For our breakfast, there are lots of delicious bananas. We did not buy any cherries today, because they are too expensive.

Next, we organize the uncountable. In the fridge, we put a lot of milk and some white cheese. For my sandwich, there is some fresh bread on the counter. We bought lots of flour to bake a cake. There is a little sweet honey left in the jar, and some golden butter for our toast. For our dinners, we got a lot of high-quality meat. We did not need any coffee because we already have some.

Everyone dances, laughs, and enjoys the party. What a yummy day in the kitchen!
