

32-34

W: Hello. I _____ an _____ on the radio about the _____ _____ you're _____. They said it's running all week, and there will be several demonstrations about _____ gardening _____. Could I _____ the demonstration _____ for Wednesday?

M: Sorry, but that _____'s just been canceled. The person _____ it had another _____.

W: Oh, too bad. So are all of the demonstrations canceled?

M: No, the demonstration for Saturday is still on. That's at 1 P.M. I can _____ you for that session. Just get there about 15 minutes before it starts so you'll get a good _____.

35-37

W: I have all these _____ from different companies for _____ the brick _____ in the _____ of our office building, and they're all really _____. How can I decide?

M: We're just having the patio at the _____, right?

W: Well, we also need a new _____ around the garden and to have some _____ pathways laid out across the lawn. It's actually quite a _____ job.

M: Oh. Maybe talk to Mr. Lukich in sales. His _____ is in _____, so maybe he has familiarity with some of the _____ and can help you pick one.

W: That's a good idea.

38-40

W: Hi. I'm the _____ manager of the Sunrise Mall Shopping Center in town. I heard your _____ last month at the _____ fair and got your contact information. I really enjoyed your music.

M: Thank you! We're a local band and it's always a _____ to hear from our _____.

W: The _____ I'm calling is that I'm wondering if you'd be interested in playing music at the shopping center on a Saturday afternoon sometime. The _____ can be _____.

M: Sure. We can play the first Saturday of March. But where exactly will we be _____?

W: There's a _____ map of the shopping center on our Web site. It'll show you where our _____ is.

41-43

M: Hi, Kirstin! I'm _____ to finally see you. Looks like you've been busy!

W: Yes, this show is _____ popular. Jose's paintings really _____ a _____. He's _____ a lot of them, too!

M: Oh, they're great. I'm thinking of buying one myself.

W: You should... sorry I've been so _____. I've been swamped at _____, _____ it's taken a lot to plan this show. Hey, would you want to get _____ with Janet and Miko for _____ next week?

M: Sure, sounds great.

44-46

W: Thanks for _____ by, Lin. I'd like to _____ the _____ we _____ yesterday for the legal _____ position. I was very _____ with Mr. Smith's work history.

M: Yeah, he has a lot of _____ experience in the legal _____, but he didn't answer our questions very _____.

W: Still, I think he'd be a great help preparing the legal _____ for our clients.

M: I'd _____ for Ms. Wong. Not only was she clear and _____, but I called one of her _____, and her former supervisor couldn't _____ her enough.

W: That's good to know.... Let me take another look at her work history.

47-49

M: Good morning! This is the front desk. How may I help you?

W: Yes... Hi... it's 7 A.M., and I am hearing _____ in the room _____ me.

M: That's right. We are doing _____ on that floor. We _____ about the _____ near the check- in desk and around the _____.

W: I have a _____ call at 8 A.M.

M: Let me see about finding an alternate _____ for you in another wing.

W: That would be great. _____ a schedule change, I will be working from my room all day.

50-52

W: I like your idea, Mark, about producing a new line of _____, voice-activated _____. But if we were going to do that, we'd need to hire a new consultant familiar with that technology, which would not be _____.

W: Given that we went over on our _____ last year, it doesn't seem likely we'd have the _____.

M: What if we _____ our spending on advertising temporarily and used the _____ to _____ the new consultant? The _____ in advertising might cause a _____ in _____, but I think we should make up for it when we _____ the lamps.

53-55

M: Have you been having any problems with the therapeutic ultrasound _____? My _____ just said he didn't feel his muscles were _____ as _____.

W: It has been _____ funny. _____ we should call the _____?

M: Maybe. I'm _____ it's getting pretty old, though. We may need to _____ it.

W: OK, I'll _____ Barbara since she has to sign off on all _____.

M: By the way, can you see Mr. Cohen for me tomorrow? He just needs to do some _____ for his wrist. He's been responding well to the _____.

56-58

M: I'm preparing the _____ report for our _____ meeting, but, can I ask you about the bill for _____? It seems very high.

W: Keep in mind that they _____ the parking area and outdoor _____.

M: Well, the real issue is that we share the expenses with the _____ clinic next door. With _____ coming to the clinic, they use far more parking _____ than we do. And the way we _____ the _____ should _____ that.

W: I think you're right. I'll e-mail the clinic about it.

59-61

W: Thank you _____ for that lovely dinner. What a nice way to _____ that our two companies will be working together in the future.

M: We've often _____ dinners here. Say, I wanted to mention how much I liked the _____ you gave at our meeting today. Very _____!

W: Ah, thank you... So, I'm in town until tomorrow afternoon. Ms. Rice, should come by your office in the morning to _____ the last few _____?

W: Yes, I'll be in at eight thirty... well, actually, _____ that nine. Does that give you _____ time before your _____?

W: Yes, that should be plenty of time.

62-64

M: Are we all _____ for the event? The food is prepared, and the _____ are ready. They're _____ the _____ now. I _____ the music and other _____. And I think we'll arrive early.

W: That's good because I was actually _____ that one hour wouldn't have been enough to get everything ready.

M: I agree. How does the _____ of the schedule look?

W: The _____ looks good. I wonder if we could actually _____ up early at the end of the night. Why don't you tell Pierre to bring the truck back at eleven_____?

M: OK, He should be finished with his hotel _____ by then.

65-67

W: Are you all set for the environmental fair our company is putting on at the park this weekend? I just finished finding _____ for my game about _____.

M: Yes, I've finished _____ the questions for the environmental trivia game I'm _____. Hey, I wanted to check with you: What else can I do to be _____ that day? Would you like me to _____ or something? Help _____?

W: One thing we could use is someone to _____ at the park entrance and _____ people to the pavilion where the fair will take place.

M: Wait, aren't there several entrances to the park?

W: Yes, but only the entrance on Court _____ is open on _____.

68-70

W: I came by in _____ to see how the _____ of my town house is proceeding. I was a bit _____ after that _____ you sent me yesterday.

M: Yes, we finished stage three of the project last week, but as I said in my text, there'll be a delay for stage four.

W: I understand there's a problem with the _____ of drywall _____?

M: There's a delay right now. _____ we should get them next week.

W: Is there anything we can do while we wait?

M: I _____ you start working with your interior _____ to decide on the finishing _____. As soon as the drywall _____, we'll be ready to finish the interior.