

Choose the best answer.

1. Sarah meets her teacher at a school seminar.
Sarah: "Good morning, Mr. Brown. It's nice to see you again."
Mr. Brown: " _____ "
A. It's great to see you again, Sarah.
B. Nice to see you too, Sarah.
C. I'm afraid I can't help you today.
D. You're welcome. Have a nice day.
E. I don't think that's a good idea.

2. Kevin: "I'd like you to meet my cousin, Lily."
Lily: "Hi, it's a pleasure to meet you."
Anna: " _____ "
A. I'm sorry, I have to leave now.
B. The pleasure is mine. Nice to meet you.
C. I don't believe we've met before.
D. Please be careful on your way home.
E. Not at all. Thanks for asking me.

3. Teacher: "Have a great weekend, everyone!"
Students: " _____ "
A. Never again. We'll be more careful.
B. Good luck with your next meeting, Sir.
C. Happy birthday! Have a wonderful day.
D. Thanks, you too! Have a great weekend.
E. Congratulations on your great success.

4. Rina is leaving her friend's house after finishing a group project.
Rina: "Thanks for your help today."
Maya: "You're welcome."
Rina: " _____ "
A. See you on Monday. Take care!
B. What's your name? I forgot it.
C. How old are you this year, Maya?
D. Nice to meet you after school today.
E. Excuse me. May I sit over there?

5. Complete the conversation.

James: "Hello, I'm James Wilson from Class X-A."

Ryan: "Hi, James. _____"

- A. I'm Ryan. Nice to meet you.
- B. I'm leaving now. See you tomorrow.
- C. Don't mention it. I'm always happy.
- D. That's too bad. Maybe next time.
- E. Never mind. Everything is just fine.

6. Two students are meeting for the first time at an English camp.

Dina: "Hi, I'm Dina. Which school are you from?"

Luna: " _____"

- A. I'm from Mandiri Senior High School.
- B. I'll see you again after lunch today.
- C. It's raining heavily outside the hall.
- D. You're welcome. I'm glad to help.
- E. That's all right. Don't worry about it.

7. Complete the dialogue.

Tom: "I'm sorry, but I have to go now."

Eric: " _____"

- A. Take care. See you tomorrow.
- B. Nice to meet you this afternoon.
- C. Congratulations on your excellent result.
- D. Help yourself to some more snacks.
- E. You're wrong about the schedule today.

8. Which expression is most appropriate when introducing a guest speaker?

- A. Please come here and sit with us.
- B. Let me introduce our guest speaker, Ms. Clara Smith.
- C. Goodbye, everyone. See you next week.
- D. What's wrong with the microphone today?
- E. Don't be late for tomorrow's meeting.

9. Complete the conversation.

Host: "Everyone, this is Mr. Daniel, our new English teacher."

Students: "_____"

- A. Welcome to our school, Sir. It's a pleasure to meet you.
- B. Never mind. We'll meet again another time.
- C. You're welcome. We are happy to help.
- D. Good night. Have a pleasant evening, Sir.
- E. That's impossible. We met you yesterday.

10. Choose the most appropriate closing statement after a formal meeting.

- A. Catch you later. Have a safe trip.
- B. It was a pleasure meeting you. Have a safe trip home.
- C. What's up? It's been a long time.
- D. Long time no see. How have you been?
- E. Don't worry about it. Everything is fine.

Questions 11-15 refer to the following dialog.

Alya : Good morning! Is this seat taken? I'm Alya, by the way.

Brian : Good morning! Not at all. I'm Brian. Nice to meet you.

Alya : Nice to meet you too. Are you a new student as well?

Brian : Yes, I am. Oh, here comes my friend. Alya, I'd like you to meet Clara.

Clara : Hi, Alya. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Alya : The pleasure is mine, Clara. Where are you from?

Clara : I'm from Bandung. I moved here last month. What about you?

Alya : I live near the school. I hope we can be good friends.

Brian : I'm sure we will. The orientation is about to begin. Shall we go?

Clara : Sure! It was nice meeting you, Alya. See you around!

11. Why do Alya and Brian start talking to each other?

- A. They have been classmates for years.
- B. Alya asks whether the seat is available.
- C. Brian wants to borrow Alya's book.
- D. They meet at a basketball club.
- E. Clara introduces them.

12. What does Brian say to introduce Clara to Alya?
- A. "This is my teacher, Clara."
 - B. "Clara is my cousin."
 - C. "Alya, I'd like you to meet Clara."
 - D. "Can you help Clara?"
 - E. "Do you know Clara?"
13. Based on the dialogue, which statement is TRUE?
- A. Alya moved from Bandung last month.
 - B. Brian and Alya are in the same class.
 - C. Clara is Brian's friend.
 - D. Brian lives near the school.
 - E. Clara and Alya have known each other for years.
14. What can we infer from Alya's statement, "I hope we can be good friends."?
- A. She does not like Brian and Clara.
 - B. She wants to build a friendship with them.
 - C. She plans to change schools soon.
 - D. She is inviting them to her house.
 - E. She wants to join their class.
15. Which expression is used to end the conversation politely?
- A. "I'd like you to meet Clara."
 - B. "Hello. Where are you from?"
 - C. "Are you a new student as well?"
 - D. "How do you do? I'm Alya, by the way."
 - E. "It was nice meeting you, Alya. See you around!"

Questions 16-20 refer to the following text.

Hello, everyone. My name is Daniel Pratama, and I am sixteen years old. I study at Harapan Senior High School and I am in Class X. I live in Semarang with my parents and my younger sister. In my free time, I enjoy playing badminton, reading novels, and listening to pop music. My favorite subject is English because I like learning new vocabulary and communicating with people from different countries. I hope to improve my speaking skills this year and make many new friends. I believe that learning, working hard, and staying positive will help me achieve my goals.

16. What is the main purpose of the text?
- A. To describe Daniel's school.
 - B. To invite readers to his school.
 - C. To introduce the writer to others.
 - D. To explain how to study English.
 - E. To tell a memorable experience.
17. Which activity does Daniel enjoy in his free time?
- A. Swimming and cooking.
 - B. Watching movies and hiking.
 - C. Writing stories and dancing.
 - D. Playing football and painting scenery.
 - E. Playing badminton and reading novels
18. Why is English Daniel's favorite subject?
- A. Because it is the easiest subject at school.
 - B. Because he wants to become a teacher.
 - C. Because all of his friends like English.
 - D. Because he has English class every day.
 - E. Because he likes learning new vocabulary.
19. What can we infer about Daniel?
- A. He prefers studying alone all the time.
 - B. He is motivated to improve himself.
 - C. He dislikes meeting new people.
 - D. He has no plans for the future.
 - E. He lives by himself.
20. Which statement is TRUE according to the text?
- A. Daniel is a student in Class X.
 - B. Daniel is seventeen years old.
 - C. Daniel's favorite subject is Mathematics.
 - D. Daniel lives with his grandparents.
 - E. Daniel does not enjoy reading.