F: Do you know some of these people at the beach?
Mch: Yes, I do. Can you see the man under the umbrella?
F: Do you mean the one who's holding the magazine?
Mch: Yes, him. That's my cousin, David.

1 F: Do you know the girls who are playing (1) _____?
Mch: I know one of them – the girl in the pink (2) _____.
F: What's her name?
Mch: Emma. Her brother's a friend of mine.
We go skateboarding together sometimes.

2 F: That man doesn't look very happy!
Mch: Oh, you mean William? Well, he was (3) _____, but he woke up when the volleyball hit him on the (4) _____!
F: What's he saying?
Mch: Please be more careful next time, I think ...

3 Mch: Can you see that boy?
F: The one who's falling into the water?
Mch: No, the other one who's just pushed him.
The boy in the (5) _____. That's my cousin, Oliver.
F: Well, he isn't very kind.
Mch: Oh, it's OK. They're only playing.

4 Mch: And look. Daisy's here too.
F: She's trying to make those flies go away I think.
They like ice cream!
Mch: I didn't mean the girl in the (6) _____.
I meant the one who's holding the (7) _____.
F: Oh, her. Right. I see.
Mch: I think she's going to go (8) _____.

5 F: And what's that boy's name?
Mch: Which boy?
F: The boy with the (9) _____. Is he collecting them?
Mch: Perhaps. He's got a big smile on his face. He's called Jack.
F: Right. Let's go and talk to him.
Mch: OK.

6 F: Look at that boy!
Mch: Which boy?
F: The boy who is falling into the water.
Mch: Yes! His friend has just (10) _____ him!
