

1. What is slapstick comedy mainly based on?

- A. Comedic street performers making fun of their own flaws
- B. Exaggerated physical actions, such as deliberately falling over
- C. Performances with food like getting a cream pie in the face
- D. Traditional music and dancing dating back to the 14th century

2. How do comedians create self-deprecating jokes?

- A. By comparing America with different countries
- B. By making fun of their audience on social media
- C. By telling stories about well-known people
- D. By showing how their reality differs from expectation

3. What makes surreal humor unique compared to other types of humor?

- A. It features strange, illogical situations and events.
- B. It was invented by a European comedian.
- C. It requires two people to play a physical trick.
- D. It is a type of humor that never uses memes.

4. When is a practical joke successful?

- A. When the victim gets upset
- B. When the victim laughs along
- C. When the victim feels inferior
- D. When the victim misunderstands the joke

5. Which statement is TRUE about wordplay?

- A. Wordplay is only popular in English-speaking countries.
- B. Wordplay is similar to slapstick and practical jokes.
- C. Wordplay makes use of the double meaning of words.
- D. Wordplay causes people to use a word wrongly.