An Eventful Trip

Last weekend Jim, his mum and his dad wanted to go to a museum in another town. On Saturday morning Jim woke up late, so they had to hurry to the train station. At the station Jim saw a cap in a shop window. He wanted to have it. He asked his dad, but his dad first said no. "Dad, please, this cap looks so cool. I haven't got a cap and it's hot and sunny today. Can I have it?" Finally, his dad said yes. Now Jim was hungry and thirsty and wanted to go to a restaurant, but at that moment their train arrived, and they got on it.

At the next station a woman got on and sat down opposite Jim and his parents. Jim was very hungry now. After half an hour the train stopped. "There was an accident with a car," the conductor said. "We have to wait for the emergency services." The woman opened her bag and took out a sandwich and an apple. Jim looked at her, when she looked up, he quickly looked away. The woman smiled and asked Jim's parents, "Can I give him something to eat?" "That's kind," they answered. The woman put her hand in her bag and gave Jim a sandwich and an orange. Jim thanked her. He was very happy.
