

Name; _____

Date: _____

Grade / SD 3 - A / B

TOPIC 1.2: LIFE PROCESSESA. FILL-IN-THE-BLANKS.

1. Animals and plants are _____ things.
2. Life processes include _____, growth, nutrition, and reproduction.
3. Movement is the ability to go from one place to another, or _____ positions.
4. Reproduction is the way animals and plants make new _____.
5. Nutrition is the process by which organisms obtain energy in the form of _____ for growth, maintenance, and repair.
6. Growth means all living things grow or get bigger in _____, even if it is just a small amount.

B. MULTIPLE CHOICE.

7. What are animals and plants considered?
 - a) Non-living things
 - b) Living things
 - c) Rocks
 - d) Machines
8. Which of the following is NOT a life process?
 - a) Movement
 - b) Growth
 - c) Nutrition
 - d) Sleeping

DO NOT PRINT THIS DOCUMENT

9. What does movement allow living things to do?

- a) Stay in one place
- b) Change positions or go from one place to another
- c) Grow bigger
- d) Reproduce

10. How do animals and plants make new babies?

- a) By eating food
- b) By moving
- c) Through reproduction
- d) By sleeping

11. Nutrition is important because it provides organisms with:

- a) Light
- b) Energy in the form of food
- c) Air
- d) Water

12. What does growth mean for living things?

- a) They stay the same size
- b) They get smaller
- c) They grow or get bigger in size
- d) They disappear

DO NOT PRINT THIS DOCUMENT