

What Should We Do?

Giving Advice to Build Better Relationships!

Student Name: _____ Grade and Section: _____

PURPOSE:

To use polite expressions to give advice and suggest solutions to improve relationships.

COMPETENCY:

Communicates orally in English by expressing ideas and suggestions to build better relationships.

SKILLS:

- ✓ Identifies advice in context.
- ✓ Uses should / shouldn't to give advice.
- ✓ Justifies suggestions with reasons.
- ✓ Interacts respectfully with classmates.

LEARNING EVIDENCE:

Students analyze situations, give advice using should / shouldn't, justify their ideas and propose solutions to improve relationships.

ACTIVITY I – ANALYZE and UNDERSTAND

A. Look at the situations. What problems can you see?

1

They are fighting.

2

She is upset.

3

He is not sharing.

4

She feels left out.

5

He is ignoring his classmate.

- B. Read the useful expressions. Underline the expressions that give advice. C. Complete the advice using should / shouldn't.

USEFUL EXPRESSIONS

- ★ I think you should talk to him.
- ★ I don't agree with you.
- ★ Why don't you apologize?
- ★ That's a good idea.
- ★ You shouldn't ignore your friends.
- ★ You must be quiet.
- ★ Maybe you could share.
- ★ You have to copy me.

- 1 You _____ talk to your classmate.
- 2 You _____ listen to your friends.
- 3 You _____ say "sorry" if you make a mistake.
- 4 You _____ be kind and respectful.
- 5 You _____ share your things.

b ACTIVITY 2 – ADVISE and JUSTIFY

- A. Choose a situation from Activity 1.

Situation number: _____

- B. Give advice and justify your answer.

I think they should _____

They shouldn't _____

Because _____

- C. Work in pairs. Share your advice and listen to your partner.

c ACTIVITY 3 – SOLVE and APPLY

- A. Write one solution to help improve the relationship.

CHALLENGE!

Create a short dialogue (3–4 lines) using should / shouldn't to solve one situation.

Then, practice it with your partner.

Every good decision starts with good advice.
Let's build better relationships together!

SELF-ASSESSMENT

I CAN...

Identify problems in situations.

Use should / shouldn't to give advice.

Justify my advice with reasons.

Propose solutions to improve relationships.

YES!

I'M PRACTICING

NOT YET

