

Fashion Historian Fact Checks The Great Gatsby's Wardrobe

1. Catherine Martin chose vibrant _____ for Gatsby's _____, which _____ reflects the era's trends in men's _____
2. The _____ boater was the definitive hat for spring and summer wear, and we see several characters wearing them _____ the movie
3. Evening dresses were typically made of _____ delicate fabrics, which were then _____ adorned with _____, sequins, and _____
4. The 1920s continue to be present in the 2020s with a resurgence of Gatsby _____ fashions and jazz age parties _____, which just goes to show that the _____, glamour, and _____ of Gatsby's world is ultimately _____
5. Why does a pink suit have a special significance in the story?

6. Are the costumes shown in the movie correspond to the reality of those times? Prove it
7. What exactly is shown differently about Daisy's appearance?
8. What makes the film more commercially marketable and relatable to the audience?