A Busy Saturday Afternoon

It is Saturday afternoon, and the Miller family is at home. Everyone is doing something different.

In the living room, Mr. Miller is reading the newspaper and drinking a cup of hot tea. Mrs. Miller is not reading; she is working in the garden. She is planting new red flowers and watering the plants because the weather is warm and sunny.

Their son, Lucas, is in his bedroom. He is studying for his English test, but he isn't writing anything right now. He is listening to music and talking to his friend on the phone. Their daughter, Emma, is in the kitchen. She is baking chocolate cookies for the family, and the kitchen smells delicious!

Even their dog, Max, is busy. He is running in the backyard and chasing a small yellow ball. Everyone is enjoying their Saturday afternoon.
