I'm Sydney McLaughlin and I started to dream of being an athlete like the rest of my family when I was a child. I started running at an early age, and I won many 100 m, 200 m and 400 m races. Later, I changed to 400 m hurdles. I am the first person to win the National High School Athlete of the Year Award twice, and I am the youngest US runner to go to the Olympic Games. At Rio 2016, I reached the semi-finals of the 400 m hurdles, and my dream is to win an Olympic medal.

My name is Moziah Bridges and I'm mad about fashion. At the age of nine, I began making colourful bow ties to sell from my grandmother's kitchen. I called my business Mo's Bows, and it became very successful after I went on TV to talk about it. Today, I work with the NBA to make bow ties with the logos of famous basketball teams. My ambition is to become a fashion designer and sell my clothes all over the world. But first I am planning to finish school and learn to drive.
