Phrasal verbs: Go

1. Read the definitions of some phrasal verbs with “go” and fill in the correct phrasal verb:

- To proceed or start doing something.
- To leave a place or person.
- To rise or increase.
- To continue / happen.
- To return to a place.

2. Complete the text using the correct phrasal verb.

A fill-in-the-blank exercise was included in the updates. Write down the answers to the activity:

Our planet is facing serious challenges today. Last year, our local community (1) _____ a massive crisis when plastic pollution destroyed the nearby river. To prevent this from happening again, the city council decided to (2) _____ with a strict recycling campaign. Every month, environmental experts (3) _____ the latest waste reports to see if the pollution levels are dropping. If the weather is good this Saturday, volunteers will (4) _____ and clean up the public park. The town mayor frequently (5) _____ the new green policies during town hall meetings to educate citizens. If we continue to ignore these ecological problems, future generations will (6) _____ even worse environmental disasters.

LIVEWORKSHEETS