1. What speciality is it?
2. What do people make it from?
3. Do people make it in the traditional way?
4. What can people do with it?
5. Is it well known in only your country or around the world?

A. People make it from the finest local clay.
B. It is well known in Viet Nam.
C. No, they don't. (In the past, people made com by hand, but now they use machines for some steps to shorten the process.)
D. It is Denby Pottery.
E. People wrap it in two layers of leaves to preserve its fragrance before selling it to consumers, and enjoy it as a speciality of Ha Noi autumn.
F. It is com (young sticky rice flakes).
G. Yes, they do. (Artisans hand-craft pottery collections using original techniques passed down through generations.)
H. It is well known around the world.
I. People make it from young sticky rice.
J. People use it for its beauty and function, make pottery in workshops, or find out about the history of pottery in the museum.

LIVEWORKSHEETS