Tourist information competition

Susan

Our class won a prize in a competition. We had to write some information about our city that would be interesting for tourists. We wrote about museums and art galleries. We took some photographs and also noted down the opening times and how much an entrance ticket costs. There are some famous paintings in the art gallery and a variety of wonderful and unusual objects in the museums. A tour guide in The City Museum was really helpful and she told us why working in a museum is a fun occupation. I think we won the competition because our information was not only useful but also attractive to look at. We all got a free trip to the City Zoo as our prize.

Mandy

Our teacher heard about the competition on the radio. We decided to write about places where you can eat out in our city. We thought it would be good to include both traditional and modern restaurants. Some tourists like more unusual places but others would rather go to more popular places to eat where the locals go. The father of one of my classmates owns a fish and seafood restaurant so he knew all the good places to recommend. We also included fast food restaurants as they are much cheaper and young people prefer them. I hadn't realised how many restaurants our city has until we entered the competition.

Gillian

Our class wrote about the parks and gardens in our city. The National Gardens are really lovely. They are so huge that you can quite easily get lost in them. However, you shouldn't worry if you do because there are lots of maps all over the gardens that show you where you are. There are many different paths that you can walk along. They go through the trees and around a beautiful lake where you can feed the ducks that swim on it. In the parks and gardens there are many different plants and flowers from all over the world. These places are perfect for tourists to rest and relax after a tiring day walking around the city centre. You can even take a picnic with you if you prefer to eat outside.

Part 3

Questions 14 – 18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My name's Zack and I'm 14. This summer my dad and I travelled to Tanzania to climb Mount Kilimanjaro, Africa's highest mountain. My dad and I have climbed many mountains in Scotland since I was little, but, at 5,895 metres, Kilimanjaro was higher than anything I'd done before. Planning the trip took months, including a few weeks training in the mountains of Switzerland.

Over 20,000 people climb Kilimanjaro every year. Some do it because the countryside is very interesting, going from rainforest to snow at the top. Our reason was that you can get to the top without ropes and special climbing kit. There are also few storms on the mountain, but we only learnt that later.

Some UK travel companies only take people older than fifteen up Kilimanjaro. I thought this was strange because the youngest person to climb it was only seven. But a company in Tanzania with experience of climbing with kids allowed us to book their trip.

Climbing above 4,000 metres can be difficult because some people get terrible headaches. I was fine, but others in our group were sick, including Dad, so I had to look after him as we got near the top. The other problem was he lost his gloves. His hands got so cold, he couldn't feel them. This was dangerous, so I gave him my socks to keep his hands warm.

It took us six days altogether and it was my best experience ever. I'd do it again tomorrow.

14. Where did Zack and his dad practise before climbing Kilimanjaro?

- A Scotland
- B Switzerland
- C Tanzania

15. Why did Zack and his dad want to climb Kilimanjaro?

- A Not much equipment is needed.
- B The countryside is beautiful.
- C There aren't storms on the mountain.

16. What problem was there with booking the trip?

- A Not many UK companies offer climbing holidays.
- B It was hard to book with Tanzanian travel companies.
- C Some travel companies thought Zack wasn't old enough.

17. What does Zack say about some of the other people in their group?

- A They were surprised by how cold it was.
- B They became ill as they climbed the mountain.
- C They weren't wearing the right clothes for climbing.

18. What is the best title for this article?

- A A difficult trip for me
- B My dad's first big climb
- C Helping my dad on the mountain

Part 4

Questions 19 – 24

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Tourism in Iceland

Recently there has been a huge increase in tourism in Iceland. With the terrible Icelandic bank (19) in 2008, it suddenly became much cheaper for foreigners to visit this beautiful country.

First of all, let me say that this has in many ways been positive! For example, the tourism industry has (20) a lot and many jobs have been created, (21) the country to do better. There are also a lot more people in town, making Reykjavik and other towns feel really lively and fun. But not everything's good when it comes to tourism.

Of course Icelanders don't (22) tourists. Iceland has actually been voted the friendliest country to visit in the world! But since tourism has developed so fast in Iceland, big changes have been happening in Iceland's society. And with the number of tourists increasing, the number of 'bad tourists' among the (23) of 'good tourists' increases too. And for some reason, people always like to think about what's going wrong (24) of what's going well so the newspapers are full of negative stories these days.

Part 5

Questions 25 – 30

For each question, write the correct answer.

Write ONE word for each gap.

Getting better

I'm sure no one likes being sick but I really hate it. Last week, I (25) not go to school at all as I (26) feeling really down. I had a really bad headache (27) made me want to sleep all the time. So my mum (28) an appointment with the doctor (29) was really busy at the time. I had to wait (30) more than an hour but then she was able to see me.
