

Name: _____

Poem: The Little Butterfly

A little butterfly is bright,
It flies softly in the light.
It rests upon a flower tree,
Then flies away so wild and free.
It plays among the flowers all day,
Then slowly flutters far away.

Q. Read the poem carefully. Become a “Rhyme Detective”!
Find the words that rhyme, pair them together, and then write one NEW rhyming word for each pair.

| Word from Poem | Rhyming Pair | Your New Rhyme |
|----------------|--------------|----------------|
| bright         | _____        | _____          |
| tree           | _____        | _____          |
| day            | _____        | _____          |
| light          | _____        | _____          |
| free           | _____        | _____          |
| away           | _____        | _____          |