PART 2 – READING (4 questions)

Last month, Minh took part in his first school storytelling contest. He had practised for two weeks, but he still felt nervous on the day of the contest. While he was waiting outside the hall, he quietly reviewed the beginning of his story. Suddenly, a younger student dropped her cue cards on the floor. Minh helped her pick them up, and this small action made him feel calmer. When the organiser called his name, Minh walked onto the stage and began his story. Halfway through it, he forgot one sentence. He paused for a moment, remembered his teacher's advice, and continued clearly. Minh did not win first prize, but he received a special award for confidence. Since the contest, he has joined the school English club and has already performed on stage twice. He says the experience has taught him not to give up when he feels nervous.	1. What is the passage mainly about? A. How Minh prepared for every school subject B. How a storytelling contest helped Minh become more confident C. Why Minh stopped joining competitions D. How to win first prize in a contest 2. What was Minh doing while he was waiting outside the hall? A. He was reviewing the beginning of his story. B. He was talking to the organiser. C. He was performing on stage. D. He was looking for his teacher. 3. Why did Minh continue after he forgot one sentence? A. The audience told him the answer. B. He remembered his teacher's advice. C. He found the sentence on a cue card. D. The organiser stopped the contest. 4. Which statement is TRUE about Minh now? A. He has never performed on stage again. B. He has left the English club. C.
