

Present Perfect Tense

A. Drag and Drop to complete.

have not been has just come Have you found Has Peter booked has written hasn't called Has he bought has won has lived

1. Harry _____ home.
2. We _____ to Spain yet.
3. She _____ in Ireland since 1999.
4. The author _____ a lot of best-selling novels.
5. _____ gifts for everyone?
6. Kim _____ two gold medals so far.
7. Peter _____ yet.
8. _____ the car keys?
9. _____ a table for Dad's birthday?

B. Drag and Drop "have been or have gone" have not been have gone has gone has been

- 1 A: Is Patrick there?
B: No, he _____ to the supermarket.
- 2 A: David speaks Spanish very well.
B: That's because he _____ to Spain many times.
- 3 A: Can I talk to the kids?
B: I'm afraid they aren't here. They _____ to the park.
- 4 A: Where's Jack?
B: He's not here. He has gone to his friend's house.
- 5 A: Have you visited Rome?
B: No, I haven't. But my sister has gone there. She left a week ago.
- 6 A: Where do you want to go today?
B: Let's go to the zoo. We _____ there for a long time.

Present Perfect Tense

A. Drag and Drop to complete.

These answer for item 1-4
just - yet - already - for

1. They haven't booked their places at the camp _____.
2. She has _____ come in.
3. Julie has _____ gone to sleep. She is very tired.
4. It hasn't rained _____ three weeks.

These answer for item 5-8
just - yet - since - for

5. Don't come in here! I've _____ cleaned the floor!
6. Ed has lived in Russia _____ 1995.
7. Has Frank left _____?
8. I haven't talked to him _____ days.