I'm Linh from Vietnam. At home, my family usually eats noodle soup for breakfast. Sometimes, we have bread and eggs. We rarely have cereal.

I eat lunch at school with my brother. We usually eat rice, meat, vegetables, and soup. Our family eats dinner together at home. We usually eat rice, meat or fish, and vegetables. After dinner, we sometimes eat ice cream.

On the weekends, we have a big lunch. My grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins all come. We usually eat some fruit first. Then, we eat meat, fish, rice, and vegetables. I love Vietnamese food. It's very good, and it's healthy.
