

Lesson 9: The police chase

LISTENING

BANK ROBBERY

Yesterday, at about 7 o'clock, there was a robbery in Oak Street. An unidentified young man in his twenties entered the bank and showed the bank clerk a note demanding money.

The bank clerk gave him the money but managed to activate the alarm. The robber ran out towards a blue van where his partner was waiting for him. They were both arrested soon after the robbery and taken to the police station, according to the police.

Now listen to some eyewitnesses and order the pictures 1-6.

Listen again and pay attention to what the eyewitnesses were doing at the time of the robbery. Match the sentence halves and complete them with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

2 Listen again and say what the eyewitnesses were doing at the time of the robbery.

Match the sentence halves and complete with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

1 Paula	a)	(buy) some magazines.
2 Colin and his friend	b)	(walk) along the street and texting.
3 Mrs Jenkins	c)	(sit) and watching the people in the street.
4 Eric	d)	(sit) in a café.
5 Sheila and Bert	e)	(look) out of the window.
6 Mrs O'Hara	f)	(stand) in a queue.

SPEAKING

Say what happened in the bank yesterday. The questions below will help you.

- 1 What happened?
- 2 What did the robber look like?
- 3 What were some eyewitnesses doing?
- 4 What were the police doing?
- 5 What do you think happened in the end?

Share your own ideas.

