ENGLISH 10 Review Test

1. This literary element refers to the patterned recurrence of stressed and unstressed syllables in poetry. _____

2. This refers to the writer's choice and use of words. _____

3. Which film production crew member is primarily responsible for guiding the artistic and dramatic vision of a film?

A. director B. Editor C. production designer d. Cameraman

4. What is the object, idea, or meaning to which a sign point?

A. Co-text B. Collocation C. Referent D. Sign

5. Which structural-context element concerns the recurring patterns or images in a literary text?

A. Co-text
B. Patterns and motifs
C. Diction
D. Sign and referent

6. A story creates a feeling of fear in its readers through its setting and events. Which element is most directly being analyzed?

A. Collocation B. Diction C. Meter D. Mood

7. A writer studies how a character's words relate to the words and sentences surrounding them. Which linguistic-context element is most relevant?

A. Co-text B. Motif C. Rhyme D. Tone

8. A literary text presents a belief about how people should treat one another. Which aspect should readers examine?

A. Only the number of lines
B. Only the author's spelling
C. Only the text's punctuation
D. The text's maxims, universal truths, and philosophies

9. A student chooses a short story rather than a poem because the intended cultural experience requires several connected events and characters. Which publishing consideration is demonstrated?

A. Avoiding cultural reflection in the text.

B. Ignoring the intended meaning of the text.

C. Replacing structure with unrelated details.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D. Selecting a literary form according to meaning and purpose

10. Which revision plan best supports coherence and cohesion in an original literary text?

A. Add unrelated scenes to make the text longer.
B. Change every word without examining the text's meaning.
C. Remove the cultural details that connect the events.
D. Check whether ideas connect logically and transitions link the parts.

11. Which revision best applies a fearful tone to the sentence "The door opened"?

A. The door opened beside the painted wall.

B. The door opened at exactly three o'clock.

C. The door opened, and everyone smiled brightly.
D. The door creaked open into the silent darkness.

12. A story describes dark clouds, empty streets, and a single streetlight flickering in the wind. What mood is most likely created?

A. Cheerful B. Celebratory C. Gloomy or eerie D. Peaceful

13. A student changes "The soldier entered" to "The exhausted soldier staggered into the ruined shelter." Which elements are most directly strengthened?

A. Diction and descriptive style.

B. The referent and co-text only.
C. The film crew's responsibilities.
D. The rhyme scheme and meter only.

14. Which statement is an example of a universal truth?

A. "The sun rises in the east."

B. "My brother likes basketball."

C. "Maria won the competition yesterday."

D. "Everyone experiences challenges in life."

15. Which crew assignment is most appropriate when the main concern is arranging shots and controlling the order of scenes in the finished film?

A. Actor C. Costume designer

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Editor D. Production designer

16. In a story, the author repeatedly describes rain whenever the main character feels sad. What does the rain represent?

A. Diction B. Motif C. Style D. Tone

17. This refers to the unique way a writer uses language to express ideas, create mood, and communicate with readers. _____

18. It is a sound device that repeats initial consonant sounds in nearby words. _____

19. "The bees buzzed by the bushes." Which sound device is in the sentence? _____

20. Identify the sound device in "The cool moon moved through the room." _____

21. It is the language surrounding a target word or expression. _____

22. It is a combination of words that commonly and naturally occur together. _____

23. "Time is a thief that steals our moments." This sentence is an example of _____.

24. Who is responsible for arranging and refining recorded shots into a finished sequence?

A. Director C. Creative director
B. Film editor D. Cameraman

25. This is the stage of filming where editing and polishing of footage is done.

A. Pre-production stage C. Post production stage
B. Shooting D. None of these

26. Director of photography is also called a _____.

27. True or False. When editing a script, it is important to check for grammatical errors, capitalization, and spelling. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

28. It is the beginning of movie making; the actual shooting of the scenes for the short film.

A. editing B. Filming C. Acting D. Brainstorming

29. This refers to the emotional atmosphere experienced by the reader. _____

30. It is the repetition of identical or similar sounds, especially at the ends of lines in poetry. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS