GRAMMAR HOMEWORK

WEEK 3: SINGULAR & PLURAL NOUNS

Learning Target: I can identify and use singular and plural nouns correctly.

THE RULES

Singular means ONE person, place, thing, or idea.

Plural means MORE THAN ONE.

Most nouns add -s.

book → books temple → temples

Nouns ending in s, x, ch, or sh usually add -es.

bus → buses dish → dishes
watch → watches

Nouns ending in consonant + y usually change y to -ies.

baby → babies city → cities
family → families

Some nouns change completely.

child → children person → people

For most nouns, singular = one.
For most nouns, plural = more than one.
