

Countables and Uncountables - Revision

I, What's missing? Some or Any?

A, I need _____ new jeans but I haven't got _____ money.

B, Are there _____ supermarkets in your town?

C, I've got _____ good friends.

D, Have you got _____ homework today?

II, Put a / an or some in front of the nouns.

A, _____ egg

B, _____ book

C, _____ milk

D, _____ jam

E, _____ ham

F, _____ carrot

G, _____ onion

H, _____ advice

III, Put much – many – a lot of into the sentences.

This is a strange shop, I think. There's _____ oil, but there aren't _____ sweets. Look. There are _____ grapes and there are too _____ apples but there isn't _____ bread.

IV, Complete the questions with How much or How many .

A, _____ butter is there in the fridge?

B, _____ stamps do you need?

C, _____ oranges are there on the table?

D, _____ Coke is there in the kitchen?

E, _____ money did you take to France?

V, Underline the correct expression.

A, My brother has little / few friends.

B, We only bought a little / few cheese.

C, We had very little / few time because it was late.

D, This coffee is bitter. It needs a few / a little / little more sugar.

E, We have very little / very few / a few spaghetti so I can't make Spaghetti Bolognese.

VI, Complete the sentences with one suitable word.

A, How _____ bread do you need?

B, My father bought _____ bananas for me yesterday.

C, My friends have got _____ tickets for the concert.

D, Is there _____ chocolate in the box?

E, Would you like _____ coffee?

F, They'll ask _____ questions in the test.

G, Can you give me a _____ sauce?

H, I can't give you too _____ help.

VII. Match the pairs.

a slice of

yoghurt

a cup of chocolates

a carton of cake

a piece of tea

a bottle of

Coke

a box of water

a glass of soup

a jar of advice

a can of wine

a bowl of jam