

Unit 4.2: Forget shopping

WATCH

F  1.16 WATCH FOR DETAILS Read the statements. Then watch segment 1 of Peleg's edited TED Talk. Write T for true or F for false for each statement.

1. _____ Peleg has a program on her computer that lets her design clothes.
2. _____ It took most of the night to print her skirt on a 3D printer.
3. _____ The skirt came out of the printer ready to wear.

G  1.17 WATCH FOR DETAILS Read one student's notes on segment 2 of Peleg's edited TED Talk. Then watch the segment. Complete the student's notes as you watch.

PELEG 3D PRINTING

At design school—Peleg decided to print collection from home₁.

- Only _____₂ months to learn
- P felt most _____₃ when she worked at home.
- P loved experimenting with new _____₄.
- P developed techniques to make unique textiles.
- P decided to work on big _____₅.
- Internship in NY—worked on two 3D dresses
- P had breakthrough—discovered Filaflex = strong and very _____₆.
Printed first garment—red jacket
- Another challenge = print textiles to use like fabric – P found open source file Printed 1500 hours to complete collection at home – a _____₇ process
- P thinks 3D printing will get faster.
- P thinks in the future materials will _____₈ to be more like familiar fabrics.

Main Ideas

H REVIEW NOTES FOR MAIN IDEAS Review the notes in exercise G. Check [✓] the the two sentences below that best express the main ideas of the talk.

1. ☐ The way we get our clothing will change.
2. ☐ Everyone should print their own clothes.
3. ☐ Peleg made a skirt overnight.
4. ☐ Peleg believes that the future of fashion will include 3D printing.
5. ☐ Current fashion design will disappear.