A Day at the Carnival

Last Saturday, Maya went to a big carnival with her family. She wore a colourful costume and a funny hat. Her brother Leo dressed up as a superhero.

There were lots of people at the carnival. They watched a parade with beautiful floats and listened to music from different bands. Maya wanted to see the costume competition because she thought it was the most exciting part of the day.

Suddenly, Leo couldn't see his parents. The crowd was too big for him to find them. He wasn't frightened because he knew that his parents were looking for him. He walked to the information tent and asked a police officer for help.

A few minutes later, his parents arrived. They were very happy to see him. After that, the family watched the rest of the parade together.

Answer the questions.

(5 marks)

1. When did Maya go to the carnival?
→ _____
 2. What did Maya wear?
→ _____
 3. What did the family watch?
→ _____
 4. Why couldn't Leo see his parents?
