

Ecosystems Quiz

Herbivores	Terrestrial	Consumers	Food web
Prey	Aquatic	Producers	Carnivores
Decomposers	Predators	Food chain	Omnivores

Part One: Using the word bank above, fill in the blank with the correct term.

1. Animals who cannot make their own food are _____ in the food chain.
2. Cows are typically _____, meaning they only eat plants.
3. The series of plants and animals in which each organism is a source of food for the next is known as a _____.
4. Animals that are _____ are hunted by other animals as food.
5. _____ speed up the decaying process and release nutrients back into the food chain.
6. Plants are called _____ because they are able to use light energy from the sun to produce food from carbon dioxide in the air and water.
7. If an animal eats only meat, it is known as a _____.
8. Animals that kill and hunt other animals for food are known as _____.
9. _____ ecosystems are areas such as grasslands, forests and savannas.
10. Oceans, ponds, and rivers are _____ types of ecosystems.
11. Plants and animals that are consumed by multiple organisms are called _____.
12. Human beings are known as _____ because they eat both meat and plants.

LIVEWORKSHEETS