

Nickname: _____

Number: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

Match the words with the descriptions.

TV Programmes TV GUIDE, NEWS, SOAP OPERA, DIY PROGRAMME, DOCUMENTARY, COOKERY PROGRAMME, CHAT SHOW, SITCOM, FILM (MOVIE), GAME SHOW, TRAVEL SHOW, WILDLIFE PROGRAMME, REALITY SHOW, GREAT, INTERESTING, AMUSING, FUNNY, SILLY, AWFUL, BORING, TERRIBLE

1) _____ = Television shows are broadly divided into scripted (fictional) and unscripted (factual) categories.

2) _____ = A TV guide is a resource that lists the schedule of television programs, including broadcast times, channel numbers, and show descriptions.

3) _____ = newly received or noteworthy information about recent events,

4) _____ = A soap opera is a serialized television or radio drama that focuses on the daily lives, relationships, and dramatic problems

5) _____ = refers to a "Do-It-Yourself" activity plan. It means a structured schedule of tasks

6) _____ = A broadcast or film that provides factual information or tells a true story.

7) _____ = A cookery programme (or cooking show) is a television show where a host, often a celebrity chef, shows viewers how to prepare and cook food in a kitchen.

8)_____ =A chat show (commonly known in the US as a talk show) is an informal television or radio program where a host interviews famous guests about their lives, work, or opinions.

9)_____ =a television series in which the same characters are involved in amusing situations in each show

10)_____ =In English, a film (or movie) is a story told through moving pictures.

11)_____ =A game show (also called a quiz show) is a radio or television program where individuals or teams compete against each other 12)_____ =A "travel show" is a TV show about exploring different destinations, cultures, and cuisines.

13)_____ =A wildlife programme is a television or radio program—such as a documentary—that focuses on wild animals and plants living independently in their natural habitats.

14)_____ =A reality show is a type of television program that features real, everyday people or celebrities being filmed in unscripted, real-life situations, rather than actors following a script

15)_____ =things that are very good, large, or important

16)_____ =means something attracts or keeps your attention because it is exciting, unusual, or special

18) _____=means funny, entertaining, or causing you to smile or laugh.

19) _____=Causing laughter; humorous.

20) _____=Causing laughter; humorous.

21) _____=means very bad, unpleasant, or of low quality.

22) _____=means not interesting or exciting.

23) _____=means very bad, unpleasant, or of low quality.

Fear, Damage, Physical reactions, Avoid, Hurt, Avoid using lifts, Shake like a leaf, Face your fears (idiom), My hair stood on end (idiom),

1) _____=Meaning: To be frightened, worried, or scared of something.

2) _____=a racing heartbeat, means heart beats faster.

To 3) _____ means to stay away from someone/something, or to proactively prevent an event from happening.

4) _____=Used for causing physical harm to inanimate objects, buildings, items, or abstract concepts (like reputation or the economy).

5) _____=Used for causing physical or emotional pain/harm to living things (people or animals). Since bugs cannot physically harm you, this is the right choice.

6) _____=trembling uncontrollably from extreme fear, nervousness, or cold

7) _____=The phrase is used to describe a moment of extreme fear, shock, or horror.

8) _____ confronting the things that scare you instead of avoiding or running away from them.

Asking for/ giving advice:

Asking for or giving advice for fears means seeking or offering guidance rooted in anxiety, limitations, or projections rather than objective potential.