

NAME: _____ NO. M.4/ __

UNIT 3:
READING NEWS AND CARTOONS

READING & WRITING NEWS HEADLINES

PART 1: WRITING HEADLINES (10 ITEMS)

Instruction: Rewrite the following complete sentences into concise news headlines using headline grammar rules.

1. A giant panda gave birth to twin cubs at the national zoo yesterday.

Headline: _____

2. The Prime Minister is going to open a new highway next month.

Headline: _____

3. Heavy rain caused severe floods in the southern area of the country.

Headline: _____

4. Scientists have discovered a new species of frog in the Amazon rainforest.

Headline: _____

5. A famous local restaurant was destroyed by a fire last night.

Headline: _____

6. Tech companies are planning to hire 5,000 new engineers this year.

Headline: _____

7. Two dangerous prisoners escaped from a high-security prison this morning.

Headline: _____

8. Oil prices dropped significantly after the global summit.

Headline: _____

9. The police arrested three suspects in connection with the bank robbery.

Headline: _____

10. NASA will launch a new telescope to search for distant planets.

Headline: _____

NAME: _____ NO. M.4/ __

UNIT 3:
READING NEWS AND CARTOONS

READING & WRITING NEWS HEADLINES

PART 2: UNPACKING HEADLINES INTO FULL SENTENCES (10 ITEMS)

Instruction: Expand the following headlines into complete, grammatically correct sentences with appropriate articles, auxiliary verbs, and tenses.

1. LOCAL FARMER FINDS ANCIENT GOLD COINS

Full Sentence: _____

2. AIRPORT CLOSED DUE TO HEAVY FOG

Full Sentence: _____

3. MAYOR TO BUILD NEW CITY PARK NEXT YEAR

Full Sentence: _____

4. 3 INJURED IN CAR CRASH ON HIGHWAY 101

Full Sentence: _____

5. GOVT LAUNCHES NEW HEALTHCARE SCHEME

Full Sentence: _____

6. MISSING HIKERS FOUND SAFE IN MOUNTAINS

Full Sentence: _____

7. TEACHERS TO STRIKE OVER LOW PAY

Full Sentence: _____

8. NEW BATTERY TECHNOLOGY EXTENDS ELECTRIC CAR RANGE

Full Sentence: _____

9. STOLEN ARTWORK RETURNED TO MUSEUM

Full Sentence: _____

10. WORLD LEADERS TO MEET IN PARIS FOR CLIMATE SUMMIT

Full Sentence: _____