Contextual Sentence Completion

Advanced Personality, Behavior & Character Vocabulary (Level B2+)

Instructions: Complete each sentence below using the most appropriate word or idiom from the word bank. Make sure to read the context carefully. Each term is used exactly once.

WORD BANK

- composed
- indifferent
- assertive
- ruthless
- self-confident
- impudent
- enthusiastic
- reserved
- insecure
- modest
- determined
- stubborn
- emotional
- passionate
- narrow-minded
- focused
- cunning
- quick-witted
- generous
- wasteful
- as cold as ice
- as bold as brass
- as hard as nails
- as cool as a cucumber
- as sly as a fox
- as keen as mustard
- upbringing
- attitude

1. Despite the severe technical difficulties and hostile questions during her live presentation, Sarah remained _____ and addressed every concern with dignity.

2. It is completely heartless how he seems entirely _____ to the suffering of his community, never offering any form of assistance.

3. Rather than staying quiet when her workload became unreasonable, Maya was _____ enough to schedule a meeting with her supervisor to set realistic boundaries.

4. The executive earned a reputation as a _____ businessman who would readily fire long-term employees to boost company profit margins.

5. Though she struggled with self-doubt early in her career, years of successful public speaking made her remarkably _____ .

6. The teacher sent the _____ student to the principal's office after he made a blatantly disrespectful joke in front of the entire class.

7. David is so _____ about launching his new startup that he talks about market research and product strategy from morning till night.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. While his brother is loud and social, Julian has always been quite _____, preferring to hold back his personal thoughts around new acquaintances.

9. Despite receiving widespread praise from top critics, the author remained genuinely _____ about her international bestseller.

10. Even after facing three consecutive business failures, he remained _____ to build a thriving enterprise, working sixteen hours a day.

11. Negotiating with someone so _____ is nearly impossible; once he forms an opinion, no amount of logical proof will change his mind.

12. Watching the retirement tribute video brought back so many cherished memories that it turned out to be a very _____ occasion for everyone present.

13. As an advocate for marine conservation, Elena is deeply _____ about protecting endangered ocean habitats.

14. Refusing to consider modern technological solutions simply because "that's not how we used to do it" reveals a dangerously _____ outlook.

15. Throughout the grueling exam preparation month, she stayed fully _____ on her study schedule and refused to let social events distract her.

16. The fraudster used a series of _____ tricks to convince unsuspecting investors to hand over their life savings.

17. During the fast-paced debate, the _____ politician immediately caught her opponent's logical fallacy and pointed it out to the jury.

18. Known for his immense philanthropy, the billionaire is extraordinarily _____ with both his fortune and his personal time.

19. Leaving the office air conditioning running at full capacity over the long holiday weekend is terribly _____ and environmentally irresponsible.

20. When she found out her colleague had betrayed her trust, her expression turned _____ and she cut off all communication immediately.

21. Without an appointment or an invitation, the young applicant walked into the director's office _____ and demanded an interview on the spot.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

22. Do not expect any pity or leniency from the chief auditor during the financial review; she is _____ when enforcing compliance regulations.

23. Even as the press hurled aggressive accusations at him during the televised conference, the minister remained _____ .

24. Watch out when making business deals with that broker; he is _____ and always finds hidden loop-holes to benefit himself.

25. The new management trainees arrived on Monday morning _____ , eager to take on their very first real project.

26. Growing up in a household where respect and kindness were emphasized gave her an excellent _____ that shaped her strong character.

27. His cynical _____ toward team collaboration frequently causes friction and arguments during project planning meetings.

28. Constantly seeking reassurance from colleagues about her reports suggests that she feels somewhat _____ in her professional skills.

LIVEWORKSHEETS