Ex3. Read and CIRCLE the correct answer.

Today, we leave our home in Ohio. We are going to a new home far away. Grandmother is sad and cries when we say goodbye. Uncle Dan and Aunt Martha buy our farm, so we cannot live there anymore. We put our things in our wagons and get ready to go. On the way, we drive past the woods and fields. Papa says, "Ellen, look at those trees! We will not see trees like these for a long time. We will plant new trees at our new home." Many families are going with us. They put boxes, baskets, and clothes in their wagons. Some families bring horses and babies, too. I feel sad and want to cry, but I want to be brave. I am excited to see our new home.
