

Agricultural Science - Types of Agriculture

Basic 6 Worksheet | Multiple Choice - Matching - Fill in the Gap

Name: _____

Class: Basic 6

Date: _____

Section A: Multiple Choice (circle the correct answer)

1. A farmer who grows just enough food to feed his family, with little or nothing left to sell, is practising:

- | | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| A. Commercial agriculture | B. Subsistence agriculture |
| C. Mechanized agriculture | D. Mixed agriculture |

2. Growing crops or rearing animals on a large scale mainly to sell for profit is called:

- | | |
|----------------------------|-------------------------|
| A. Subsistence agriculture | B. Shifting cultivation |
| C. Commercial agriculture | D. Nomadic herding |

Section B: Matching

3. Match each type of agriculture in Column A with what it mainly involves in Column B. Write the correct letter in the bracket.

COLUMN A

- i. Arable farming ()
- ii. Pastoral farming ()
- iii. Mixed farming ()
- iv. Nomadic herding ()

COLUMN B

- A. Moving from place to place with animals in search of grass
- B. Growing of crops only
- C. Rearing of animals only
- D. Growing crops and rearing animals together

Section C: Fill in the Gap

4. A farming system in which both crops are grown and animals are reared on the same farm is known as _____ farming.

5. Farmers who move from place to place with their animals in search of green pasture and water practise _____ farming.

Answer Key (For the Teacher)

1. B - Subsistence agriculture 2. C - Commercial agriculture
3. i-B (crops only), ii-C (animals only), iii-D (crops + animals), iv-A (moving in search of grass)
4. Mixed farming 5. Nomadic farming