

Describe a news story you read/saw.

You should say:

- what kind of news story it was
- what happened to the people in the story
- why the event was important enough to be reported on the news and explain how you felt about the news story.