Sally loved history lessons. Last week her teacher asked the class to find out about the pyramids in Egypt. Sally's uncle lived in Egypt when he was young, so she asked him some (1) _____ .

'Why did they build the pyramids, Uncle Ben?' Sally asked.

'They are tombs for the pharaohs and (2) _____ of Egypt. When they died, they dressed them and left them with their favourite things in the tombs,' Uncle Ben said.

'What kind of things?' Sally asked.

'Lots of things, Sally,' said Uncle Ben. 'Their money, (3) _____ and sometimes their pets. They had people to protect the tombs from criminals who wanted to steal their possessions.'

'Are those people called "tomb raiders"?' Sally asked. Uncle Ben told her she was right. Sally thought about the (4) _____ she played with her brother. She never thought it was in Egypt.

The next week, Sally told her class about 'tomb raiders'. Her teacher asked her to make a (5) _____ for the classroom. She was very happy.
